Power of the Minister to confer privileges and immunities

7. (1) The Minister may by regulations, either with or without restrictions or to the extent or subject to the conditions prescribed in such regulations, confer upon the Board, the members of its constituent organs or any persons attending any international conference organized by the Board all or any privileges or immunities listed in the Schedule.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1), the Minister may by regulations—

- (a) confer upon the Board all or any of the privileges or immunities specified in Part I of the Schedule;
- (b) confer upon a person who is, or has ceased to be, a member of the General Assembly or the Council or a person accredited to, or is in attendance at, or has attended, an international conference convened by the Board as a representative of a Member all or any of the privileges or immunities specified in Part II of the Schedule;

- (c) confer upon a person who is, or was, or is performing, or has performed, the duties of, a Secretary General or any member of the Secretariat all or any of the privileges or immunities specified in Part III of the Schedule; and
- (d) confer upon a person who is, or was, or is performing, or has performed, the duties of, a member of a Technical Committee all or any of the privileges or immunities specified in Part IV of the Schedule.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (2), regulations conferring any privileges or immunities shall be made upon consultation with the Minister charged with the responsibilities for foreign affairs except regulations conferring any privileges or immunities with respect to matters for which the Minister is for the time being responsible.

(4) The Minister may make regulations as he deems appropriate for the purpose of this section which may be of general application or may relate to—

- (a) particular Members or classes of Members;
- (b) particular members or classes of members of its constituent organs; or
- (c) particular persons or classes of persons.

(5) Where by the regulations any privileges or immunities are conferred upon a person under paragraph (2)(b), that person is entitled to the same privileges and immunities while travelling to a place for the purpose of presenting his credentials or of attending the conference or while returning from a place after ceasing to be so accredited or after attending the conference.

(6) Where by the regulations any privileges or immunities are conferred upon a person under paragraph (2)(d), that person is entitled to the same privileges and immunities while travelling to a place for the purpose of serving on such committee or while returning from a place after serving on the committee.

(7) Subject to subsection (8), where, by the regulations or by subsection (5), any privileges or immunities are conferred upon a person who is, or has been, a member of the General Assembly or the Council, or a person accredited to, or in attendance at, an international conference convened by the Board as a representative of a Member, a person who is, or has been during any period, a member of the official staff of the first-mentioned person is entitled, in respect of that period, to the same privileges and immunities as the first-mentioned person.

(8) A person who is or has been a representative of a Member or a member of the official staff of such a representative during the period when he is or was a Malaysian citizen is not entitled under this section or the regulations to any privileges or immunities, except in respect of acts and things done in his capacity as such a representative or member, as the case may be.

No immunity in certain circumstances

8. This Act shall not confer on any person referred to in section 7 any immunity—

- (a) in respect of a civil action by a third party for damage arising from an accident caused by a motor vehicle or other means of transport belonging to or driven by such a person;
- (b) in respect of a traffic offence involving such a person and committed by such a person; and
- (c) in respect of matters affecting the national interest of Malaysia.

Waiver

9. (1) The Council shall have the power to waive the immunities conferred on any person referred to in section 7 where the immunities would impede the course of justice and where the immunities can be waived without prejudicing the purposes for which they were conferred.

(2) The Secretary General, with the concurrence of the Council, shall have the power to waive the immunities conferred on the Board for the purpose of any commercial transactions entered into by the Board.

(3) The Secretary General shall have the power to waive the immunities conferred on the members of the Secretariat (other than his own) in section 7 when he considers such immunities are preventing the carrying out of justice and when it is possible to dispense with such immunities without prejudicing the interest of the Board.

Power to appoint attorney

10. The Council may, by instrument under the common seal of the Board, appoint any person whether in Malaysia or in a place outside Malaysia to be the attorney of the Board, and the person so appointed may, subject to such instrument, do any act or execute any power or function which he is authorized by the instrument to do or execute.
