Individual exemption

51. (1) An enterprise may apply to the Commission for an exemption with respect to a particular agreement from the prohibition under section 49.

(2) The Commission may, by order published in the Gazette, grant the exemption if, in the opinion of the Commission, the agreement is one to which section 50 applies.

(2) An exemption granted under this section is referred to as a “block exemption”.

(2) The Commission may publish guidelines specifying the types of conduct which would or would not be prohibited under subsection (1).

(3) This section does not prohibit an enterprise in a dominant position from taking any step which has reasonable commercial justification or represents a reasonable commercial response to the market entry or market conduct of a competitor.

(4) The fact that the market share of any enterprise is above or below any particular level shall not in itself be regarded as conclusive as to whether that enterprise occupies, or does not occupy, a dominant position in that market.

Division 4

Mergers

Mergers

54. (1) Mergers that have resulted, or may be expected to result, in a substantial lessening of competition in any aviation service market are prohibited.

- (d) a joint venture is created to perform, on a lasting basis, all the functions of an autonomous economic entity.

(3) For the purposes of this Division, control, in relation to an enterprise, shall be regarded as existing if, by reason of rights, contracts or any other means, or any combination of rights, contracts or other means, decisive influence is capable of being exercised with regard to the activities of the enterprise and, in particular, by—

- (a) ownership of, or the right to use all or part of, the assets of the enterprise; or
- (b) rights or contracts which enable decisive influence to be exercised with regard to the composition, voting or decisions of the enterprise.

(4) For the purposes of this Division, control is acquired by any person or other enterprise if he or it—

- (a) becomes a holder of the rights or contracts, or entitled to use the other means, referred to in subsection (3); or
- (b) although not becoming such a holder or entitled to use those other means, acquires the power to exercise the rights derived therefrom.

(5) In determining whether influence of the kind referred to in subsection (3) is capable of being exercised, regard shall be had to all the circumstances of the matter and not solely to the legal effect of any instrument, deed, transfer, assignment or other act done or made.

(6) For the purposes of this Division, a merger shall not be deemed to occur if—

 - (i) is for the purpose of arranging for the disposal, within the specified period, of all or part of the other enterprise or its assets or securities; and

- (8) In subsection (7), “specified period” means—
- (a) the period of twelve months from the date on which control of the other enterprise was acquired; or

- (a) whether the prohibition in section 54 will be infringed by the anticipated merger, if carried into effect; and
- (b) if it will not be infringed, whether it is—
 - (i) because of the effect of an exclusion which will apply if the anticipated merger is carried into effect;
 - (ii) because the anticipated merger, if carried into effect, is exempted by the Minister from the application of the prohibition under subsection 59(2); or
 - (iii) because an undertaking has been accepted pursuant to section 62.

(3) Subject to subsection (4), where the Commission makes a decision that an anticipated merger, if carried into effect, will not infringe the prohibition in section 54, the Commission may, if it thinks fit, state that the decision shall be valid only for the period it specifies therein.

(4) Before the expiry of the period referred to in subsection (3), if any, an application may be made by all parties to the anticipated merger who applied to the Commission for a decision on the anticipated merger under this section for that period to be extended.

(5) Where an application for an anticipated merger to be considered has been made to the Commission in accordance with subsection (1) and the anticipated merger is carried into effect before the Commission makes a decision under subsection (2) in respect thereof, the application relating to the anticipated merger—

(a) may be treated by the Commission as if it were an application for the resulting merger to be considered made in accordance with section 56; and

(b) the Commission may make a decision under section 56 in respect of the resulting merger.

(6) For the purpose of subsection (5), the Commission may make a decision under subparagraph 56(2)(b)(ii) notwithstanding the exemption was granted by the Minister under subsection 59(2) in respect of the anticipated merger.

(7) Notwithstanding subsection (5), the Commission may refuse to make any decision in respect of a merger referred to therein and require any party involved in the merger to apply to the Commission for the merger to be considered under subsection 56(1).

- (b) if it has not been infringed, whether that is—
 - (i) because of the effect of an exclusion;
 - (ii) because the merger is exempted from the prohibition under subsection 59(2); or
 - (iii) because an undertaking has been accepted pursuant to section 62.

(3) A reference in any provision of this Act to an application or a notification under section 56 shall include a reference to an application or a notification under section 55 that the Commission treats as an application or a notification under section 56 pursuant to subsection 55(5).
