(4) Where, under subsection (1), a Langkawi company has increased its share capital beyond the capital stated in its memorandum by shares of a fixed amount, it shall, within one month after the passing of the resolution authorizing the increase, cause to be lodged with the Registrar a notice in the prescribed form of the increase.

(5) If any Langkawi company fails to comply with the provisions of subsection (4), the company and every officer of the company who is in default shall be guilty of an offence against this Act.

Penalty: Five thousand ringgit. Default penalty.

Validation of shares improperly issued

43. Where a Langkawi company has purported to issue or allot shares, and the issue or allotment of those shares was invalid by reason of any provision of this Act or of the memorandum or articles of association of the company or otherwise, or the terms of issue or allotment were inconsistent with or unauthorized by any such provision, the Court may, upon an application being lodged with it by the company or by a holder or mortgagee of any of those shares or by a creditor of the company, and upon being satisfied that in all the circumstances it is just and equitable so to do, make an order validating the issue or allotment of those shares, or confirming the terms of issue or allotment thereof, or both, subject to such conditions, if any, as it may impose, and upon such order being made and a copy of the order being lodged by the company or by such holder, mortgagee or creditor with the Registrar, those shares shall be deemed to have been validly issued or allotted upon the terms of issue or allotment thereof as varied by the conditions, if any, imposed by the Court.

Special resolution for reduction of share capital

44. (1) Subject to confirmation by the Court, a Langkawi company may, if so authorized by its articles of association, by special resolution reduce its share capital in any way and in particular, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, may—

- (a) extinguish or reduce the liability on any of its shares in respect of share capital not paid up;
- (b) cancel any paid-up capital which is lost or unrepresented by available assets; or
- (c) pay off any paid-up share capital which is in excess of the needs of the company, or which it is otherwise in the interests of the company as a whole to have paid off, and may, so far as necessary, alter its memorandum by reducing the amount of its share capital and of its shares accordingly.

(2) Where the proposed reduction of share capital involves the diminution of liability in respect of unpaid share capital or the payment to any shareholder of any paid-up share capital, and in any other case if the Court so directs—

- (a) every creditor of the Langkawi company who, at the time fixed by the Court, is entitled to any debt or claim which, if that date were the commencement of the winding up of the company, would be admissible in proof against the company, shall be entitled to object to the reduction;
- (b) the Court, unless satisfied by statutory declaration by the directors that there are no such creditors, shall settle a list of creditors so entitled to object, and for that purpose shall ascertain, as far as possible without requiring an application from any creditor, the names of those creditors and the nature and amount of their debts or claims, and may publish notices fixing a final day on or before which creditors not entered on the list may claim to be so entered; and

(c) where a creditor entered on the list whose debt or claim is not discharged or has not been determined does not consent to the reduction, the Court may dispense with the consent of that creditor on the Langkawi company securing payment of his debt or claim by appropriating, as the Court directs—

- (i) if the company admits the full amount of the debt or claim or, although not admitting it, is willing to provide for it, the full amount of the debt or claim; or
- (ii) if the company does not admit, and is not willing to provide for it, the full amount of the debt or claim, or if the amount is contingent or not ascertained, an amount fixed by the Court after the like inquiry and adjudication as if the company were being wound up by the Court.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (2), the Court may, having regard to the circumstances of the case, direct that all or any of the provisions of that subsection shall not apply as regards any class of creditors.

(4) The Court, if satisfied with respect to every creditor who under subsection (2) is entitled to object, that either his consent to the reduction has been obtained, or his debt or claim has been discharged or has been determined or has been secured, may make an order confirming the reduction on such terms and conditions as it thinks fit, and may require the Langkawi company to publish as the Court directs the reasons for the reduction or such other information as the Court thinks expedient, and, if the Court thinks fit, the causes which led to the reduction.

(5) An order made under subsection (4) shall show the amount of the share capital of the Langkawi company as altered by the order, the number of shares into which it is to be divided and the amount of each share and the amount, if any, at the date of the order, deemed to be paid up on each share.

(6) On the lodging of an office copy of the order with the Registrar, the resolution for reducing share capital as confirmed by the order so lodged shall take effect.

(7) The certificate of the Registrar shall be conclusive evidence that all the requirements of this Act with respect to reduction of share capital have been complied with and that the share capital of a Langkawi company is as stated in the order.

(8) On the lodging of the copy of the order, the particulars shown in the order pursuant to subsection (5) shall be deemed to be substituted for the corresponding particulars in the memorandum, and such substitution and any addition ordered by the Court to be made in the name of the Langkawi company shall (in the case of any addition to the name, for such period as is specified in the order of the Court) be deemed to be an alteration of the memorandum for the purposes of this Act.

(9) A member, past or present, shall not be liable in respect of any share to any call or contribution exceeding in amount the difference between the amount of the share as fixed by the order and the amount paid, or the reduced amount which is to be deemed to have been paid on the share, as the case may be, but where any creditor entitled to object to the reduction is, by reason of his ignorance of the proceedings for reduction, or of their nature and effect upon his claim, not entered on the list of creditors, and after the reduction the Langkawi company is unable, within the meaning of the provisions of this Act with respect to winding up by the Court, to pay the amount of his debt or claim—

- (a) every person who was a member of that Langkawi company at the date of the lodging of the copy of the order of the Court for reduction shall be liable to contribute for the payment of that debt or claim to an amount not exceeding that which he would have been liable to contribute if the company had commenced to be wound up on the day before that date; and
- (b) if that Langkawi company is wound up, the Court, on the application of any such creditor and proof of his ignorance of the proceedings for reduction or of their nature and effect upon his claim, may settle a list of persons so liable to contribute, and make and enforce calls and orders on the contributories settled on the list, as if they were ordinary contributories in a winding up, but nothing in this subsection shall affect the rights of the contributories among themselves.

(10) Any officer of a Langkawi company who—

- (a) wilfully conceals the name of any creditor entitled to object to the reduction;
- (b) wilfully misrepresents the nature or the amount of the debt or claim of any creditor; or
- (c) aids, abets or is party to any such concealment or misrepresentation, shall be guilty of an offence against this Act.

Penalty: Ten thousand ringgit.

(1) No Langkawi company shall allot a preference share, or convert an issued share into a preference share, unless there is set out in its articles of association the rights of the holder of such a share with respect to the repayment of capital, participation in surplus assets and profits, cumulative or non-cumulative dividends, voting and priority of payment of capital and dividend in relation to other shares or other classes of preference shares.

(2) The issue by a Langkawi company of preference shares ranking pari passu with existing preference shares issued by the company shall be deemed to be a variation of the rights attached to those existing preference shares unless the issue of the first-mentioned shares was authorized by the terms of issue of existing preference shares or by the articles of association in force at the time the existing preference shares were issued.

(3) If default is made in complying with this section, the Langkawi company and every officer of the company who is in default shall be guilty of an offence against this Act.

Redeemable preference shares

46. (1) Subject to this section, a Langkawi company having a share capital may, if so authorized by its articles of association, issue preference shares which are, or at the option of the company are to be, liable to be redeemed and the redemption shall be effected only on such terms and in such manner as are provided by the articles of association.

(2) The redemption shall not be taken as reducing the amount of authorized share capital of the company.

(b) unless they are fully paid up.

(5) Where any such shares are redeemed otherwise than out of the proceeds of a fresh issue, there shall, out of profits which would otherwise have been available for dividend, be transferred to a reserve called the “capital redemption reserve” a sum equal to the nominal amount of the shares redeemed, and the provisions of this Act relating to the reduction of the share capital of a Langkawi company shall, except as provided in this section, apply as if the capital redemption reserve were paid-up share capital of the company.

(6) Where, in pursuance of this section, a Langkawi company has redeemed, or is about to redeem, any preference shares, it may issue shares up to the nominal amount of the shares redeemed or to be redeemed as if those shares had never been issued, and accordingly the share capital of the company shall not, for the purposes of any fee under this Act, be deemed to be increased by such issue, but where new shares are issued before the redemption of the old shares, the new shares shall not, so far as it relates to any fee under this Act, be deemed to have been issued in pursuance of this subsection unless the old shares have been redeemed within one month after the issue of the new shares.

(7) The capital redemption reserve may be applied in paying up unissued shares of the company to be issued to members of the company as fully paid bonus shares.

(8) If a Langkawi company redeems any redeemable preference shares, it shall, within one month after so doing, give notice thereof to the Registrar specifying the shares redeemed.

(2) The Companies (Winding-Up) Rules 1972 [P.U. (A) 289/1972] shall also apply to the winding up of a Langkawi company, subject to such modifications as the Minister may make by order, and in particular references to a “company” shall be taken as references to a Langkawi company.

(3) In this section, “modification” includes amendment, adaptation, alteration, variation, addition, division, substitution or exclusion.

105. Any document may be served on a Langkawi company by leaving it at, or sending it by post to, the registered office of the company, or if the registered office of the company ceases to exist, the document may be served by leaving it at or sending it by post to any place of business established by the company in Langkawi.

Transfer from Langkawi

106. (1) A Langkawi company may, upon obtaining the approval of the Registrar and within two months from the date on which the approval is obtained, apply to the proper officer of another country or of a jurisdiction within such a country, by the laws of which such transfer is authorized, for an instrument transferring a company as if it had been incorporated under the laws of that other country or jurisdiction, and on the date of the instrument of transfer, the company shall, subject to the provisions of this section, become a company under the laws of that country or jurisdiction and be domiciled in that country or jurisdiction.

(2) A Langkawi company shall not apply to the Registrar for approval under subsection (1) unless—

(5) Where a Langkawi company notifies the Registrar under subsection (4) that an instrument transferring the company to another country or jurisdiction has been executed by the proper officer of that other country or jurisdiction and that notification is false, then, notwithstanding that the Registrar has removed the name of the company from the register in pursuance of that subsection—

- (a) the liability (if any) of any officer or member of the company shall continue and may be enforced as if the company were still registered under this Act; and

(2) If after the expiration of one month from the date of a notice under subsection (1), the whereabouts of the shareholder remain unknown, the company may transfer the shares held by the shareholder in the company to the Registrar and for that purpose may execute for and on behalf of the owner a transfer of those shares to the Registrar; and the person whose shares have been forfeited shall cease to be a member in respect of the forfeited shares, but shall, notwithstanding the forfeiture, remain liable to pay to the company all moneys which, at the date of forfeiture, were payable by him to the company in respect of the shares, but his liability shall cease if and when the company receives payment in full of all such moneys in respect of the shares.

Power to grant relief

110.(1) In any proceedings for negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust against a person to whom this section applies, if it appears to the Court before which the proceedings are taken that he is or may be liable in respect thereof but that he has acted honestly and reasonably and that, having regard to all the circumstances of the case including those connected with his appointment, he ought fairly to be excused for the negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust, the Court may relieve him either wholly or partly from his liability on such terms as the Court thinks fit.

(2) Where any person to whom this section applies has reason to apprehend that any claim will or might be made against him in respect of any negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust, he may apply to the Court for relief, and the Court shall have the same power to relieve him under this section as it would have had if it had been a Court before which proceedings against him for the negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust had been brought.

(1) No proceedings under this Act shall be invalidated by any omission, defect, error, irregularity or deficiency of notice or time unless the Court is of the opinion that substantial injustice has been or may be caused thereby which cannot be remedied by any order of the Court and the Court may, if it thinks fit, make an order or direction declaring that such proceedings are valid notwithstanding any such omission, defect, error, irregularity or deficiency.

(2) Without affecting the generality of subsection (1) or of any other provisions of this Act, where any omission, defect, error, irregularity or deficiency, including the absence of a quorum at any meeting of the Langkawi company, has occurred in the management or administration of a Langkawi company whereby any breach of the provisions of this Act has occurred, or whereby there has been default in the observance of the memorandum or articles of association of the company, or whereby any proceedings at or in connection with any meeting or purported meeting have been rendered ineffective, including the failure to make or lodge any declaration of solvency, the Court—

- (a) may, either of its own motion or on an application lodged by any interested person, make such order or direction as it thinks fit to rectify or cause to be rectified or to negative or modify or cause to be negated or modified the consequences in law of any such omission, defect, error, irregularity or deficiency, or to validate any act, matter or thing rendered invalid by or as a result of any such omission, defect, error, irregularity or deficiency;
- (b) shall, before making any such order or direction, satisfy itself that such an order or direction would not do injustice to the company or to any member or creditor of the company, or any other person;

- (c) where any such order or direction is made, may give such ancillary or consequential directions as it thinks fit; and
