Direction of the Minister to apply procedure in section 20

Provided that, in the case of an extraterritorial offence, it is so punishable under the laws of Malaysia if it took place in corresponding circumstances outside Malaysia.

(3) An offence shall also be an extradition offence if it consists of an attempt or a conspiracy to commit, or an abetment of the commission of, any offence described in subsection (2).

Law of a country

7. A reference in this Act to a law of a country includes a reference to a law of, or in force in, a part of that country.

PART III

RETURN OF FUGITIVE CRIMINALS

Restrictions on return of fugitive criminals

8. A fugitive criminal shall not be surrendered to a country seeking his return—

- (a) if the offence in respect of which his return is sought is of a political character or he proves to the satisfaction of the Sessions Court before which he is brought or of the Minister that the warrant for his return has in fact been made with a view to try or punish him for an offence of a political character;

- (b) if the request for his surrender although purporting to be made for an extradition offence was in fact made for the purpose of prosecuting or punishing the person on account of his race, religion, nationality or political opinions;
- (c) if he might be prejudiced at his trial or punished or imprisoned by reason of his race, religion, nationality or political opinions;
- (d) if prosecution for the offence in respect of which his return is sought is, according to the law of that country, barred by time;
- (e) unless provision is made by the law of that country, or in the extradition arrangement with that country, that a fugitive criminal who has not had a reasonable opportunity of leaving that country shall not be detained or tried in that country for any offence committed prior to his return, other than the extradition offence proved by the facts on which his surrender or return is based or any lesser offence proved by the facts on which that return was grounded unless the consent of the appropriate authority in the requested country has been obtained; or
- (f) unless provision is made by the law of that country, or in the extradition arrangement with that country, that a fugitive criminal who has not had a reasonable opportunity of leaving that country shall not be extradited to another country for trial or punishment for any offence that is alleged to have been committed or was committed before the fugitive criminal's return to the first mentioned country unless the consent of the appropriate authority in the requested country has been obtained.

Exceptions to political offences

9. (1) For the purposes of paragraph 8(a), any of the following offences shall not be held to be offences of a political character in relation to a country which has made corresponding provisions in its laws:

- (a) murder or other wilful crime against the person of a Head of State or a member of the Head of State's immediate family;

- (b) an act which, under a multilateral treaty to which Malaysia and the country seeking the return of the fugitive criminal are parties, constitutes an offence for which a person will be extradited or prosecuted notwithstanding the political character or motivation of such act;
- (c) any attempt, abetment or a conspiracy to commit any of the foregoing offences.

When consent of the Minister is necessary

10. (1) Where a fugitive criminal has been returned to a country and the country concerned intends to try him for an extradition offence committed prior to his return other than that for which he was extradited, or to extradite him to another country for trial or punishment for any other offence, it shall make a request for the consent of the Minister through its diplomatic representative and such request shall be accompanied by all relevant information and documents in respect thereof.

(2) The Minister may call for any additional information or documents as he may require in order that he may be satisfied that the request for his consent under subsection (1) is consistent with the provisions of this Act.

(3) The Minister shall not give his consent under subsection (1) if he has reasonable grounds for believing that the offence to which the request for consent relates could have been charged prior to the return of such fugitive criminal if due diligence had been exercised.

PART IVPROCEDURE FOR RETURN OF FUGITIVE CRIMINALS*Liability of a fugitive criminal to be apprehended and returned

11. Where a fugitive criminal is found in Malaysia, he shall be liable to be apprehended and returned in the manner provided by this Part to the country concerned.

- (b) in the case of a fugitive criminal unlawfully at large after conviction of an offence, a certificate of the conviction and sentence in that country and a statement of the amount, if any, of that sentence which has been served, together in each case with particulars of the fugitive criminal whose return is requested and of the facts upon which and the law under which he is accused or was convicted, and evidence sufficient to justify the issue of a warrant for his apprehension under section 13.

(3) On receipt of such requisition, the Minister may, by order under his hand and seal, signify to a Magistrate that such requisition has been made and authorize him to issue a warrant for the apprehension of the fugitive criminal.

(4) If the Minister is of the opinion that the offence to which the warrant relates is one of a political character, he may, if he thinks fit, refuse to make any such order, and may also at any time order a fugitive criminal convicted of such offence to be discharged from custody.

Issue of warrants by Magistrate

13. (1) Where a fugitive criminal is in or suspected of being in or on the way to Malaysia, the Magistrate—

- (a) shall, on receipt of an order made under subsection 12(3), issue a warrant for the apprehension of such fugitive criminal; or
- (b) may, where no order has been made under subsection 12(3), issue a provisional warrant for the apprehension of such fugitive criminal on such information and evidence and under such circumstances as would, in his opinion, justify the issue of a warrant if the offence had been committed or the fugitive criminal convicted in Malaysia.

(2) For the purposes of paragraph (1)(b), information contained in an international notice issued by the International Criminal Police Organisation (INTERPOL) in respect of a fugitive criminal may be considered by the Magistrate in deciding whether a provisional warrant should be issued for the apprehension of a fugitive criminal.

Magistrate to report issue of provisional warrant to Minister

14. (1) A Magistrate issuing a provisional warrant shall forthwith send a report of the issue together with the information or evidence or certified copy thereof to the Minister.

(2) The Minister may, if he thinks fit, order the warrant to be cancelled and the person who has been apprehended on the warrant to be discharged.

(2) Upon receipt of the order of the Minister signifying that a requisition has been made for the return of the fugitive criminal, the Magistrate shall order—

- (a) that the case be transmitted to the Sessions Court; and
- (b) that his remand under subsection (1) be extended until his appearance before the Sessions Court.

Procedure in respect of a fugitive criminal apprehended on a provisional warrant when order has been received by the Magistrate

17. Where at the time the fugitive criminal who is apprehended on a provisional warrant is brought before any Magistrate the Magistrate has received an order of the Minister signifying that a requisition has been made for the return of the fugitive criminal, the Magistrate shall order—

- (b) that he is not the person against whom the warrant was issued in the country which seeks his return;

- (c) that the alleged act or omission is not an extradition offence in relation to the country which seeks his return;

- (e) that the offence is an offence under military law which is not also an offence under the general criminal law;
- (f) that the alleged act or omission does not constitute an offence under the law of Malaysia;
- (g) that his return would not be in accordance with the provisions of this Act;
- (h) that he has been previously convicted or acquitted or pardoned by a competent tribunal or authority in the country which seeks his return or in Malaysia in respect of the alleged act or omission; or
- (i) that the request for his surrender was made for the purpose of prosecuting or punishing him on account of his race, religion, nationality or political opinions, or that he might be prejudiced at his trial or punished or imprisoned by reason of his race, religion, nationality or political opinions.

(2) Nothing in this section shall limit the power of the Sessions Court to receive any other evidence that may be tendered to show that the fugitive criminal should not be returned.

(3) For the purposes of paragraph (2)(d), the Sessions Court may receive such evidence as in its opinion may assist it in determining the truth, whether or not such evidence is otherwise legally admissible in a court of law.

(4) If the Sessions Court is of the opinion that a prima facie case is not made out in support of the requisition of the country concerned, the Court shall discharge the fugitive criminal.

(5) If the Sessions Court is of the opinion that a prima facie case is made out in support of the requisition of the country concerned, the Court shall commit the fugitive criminal to prison to await the order of the Minister for his surrender, and shall report the result of its inquiry to the Minister; and shall forward together with such report any written statement which the fugitive criminal may desire to submit for the consideration of the Minister.

Procedure before Sessions Court where a special direction has been given under section 4

20. (1) Where a direction has been given by the Minister under section 4, the Sessions Court shall—

- (a) after hearing any representation made in support of the extradition request;
- (b) upon the production of supporting documents in relation to the offence;
- (c) upon being satisfied that the alleged act or omission of the fugitive criminal would, if it had taken place in Malaysia, constitute an offence under the laws of Malaysia;
- (d) if the fugitive criminal does not satisfy the Court that there are substantial grounds for believing that—
 - (i) the offence is an offence of a political character, or that the proceedings are being taken with a view to try or punish him for an offence of a political character;
 - (ii) prosecution for the offence in respect of which his return is sought is barred by time in the country which seeks his return;

commit the fugitive criminal to prison to await the order by the Minister for his surrender.

(2) In the proceedings before the Sessions Court under subsection (1) the fugitive criminal is not entitled to adduce, and the Court is not entitled to receive, evidence to contradict the allegation that the fugitive criminal has done or omitted to do the act which constitutes the extradition offence for which his return is sought.

(2) Upon the expiration of the period referred to in subsection (1) or, if an application for a writ of habeas corpus has been made to the High Court by the fugitive criminal, upon the final determination of such application by the High Court or after such further period as may be allowed in either case by the Minister, the Minister shall—

- (a) in the case of a requisition made under section 29, issue a temporary surrender warrant under his hand and seal; or
- (b) in the case of a requisition made under section 12, issue a surrender warrant under his hand and seal, to order the fugitive criminal to be surrendered to such person as may in his opinion be duly authorized to receive the fugitive criminal by the country which made the requisition for his return, and such fugitive criminal shall be returned accordingly.

(3) It shall be lawful for any person to whom such warrant is directed and for the person so authorized as aforesaid to receive, hold in custody and convey, within the jurisdiction of the country which made the requisition for his return, the fugitive criminal and if the fugitive criminal escapes out of any custody to which he may be surrendered in pursuance of such warrant, it shall be lawful to retake him in the same manner as any person accused of any crime against the laws of Malaysia may be retaken upon an escape.

 - (iii) upon his return to the country which made the requisition for his return, he shall be tried for the extradition offence in respect of which his extradition was requested or he may be tried for any lesser offence proved by the facts on which that extradition offence was grounded;
 - (iv) upon his return to that country, he may also be tried for any other extradition offence in respect of which the Minister so consents under section 10.

(2) If, after the fugitive criminal has been advised in accordance with paragraph (1)(b), the fugitive criminal again consents to the waiver, the Court shall commit the fugitive criminal to prison to await the warrant of the Minister under subsection (3).

(3) The Minister may, at any time after a fugitive criminal has been committed to prison, issue—as the case may be, for the return of the fugitive criminal to the country concerned.

(4) Section 36 shall not apply to a fugitive criminal committed to prison under this section.

- (c) if the certificate of or judicial document stating the fact of conviction purports to be certified by a Judge, Magistrate or officer of the country where the conviction took place; and if in every case the warrant, depositions, statement, copies, certificates and judicial documents (as the case may be) are authenticated by the oath of some witness or being sealed with the official seal of the Minister of Justice or some other Minister of State; and all courts in Malaysia shall take judicial notice of such official seal and shall admit the documents so authenticated by it to be received in evidence without further proof.
